Principal's Message

Fervent in Prayer – Trusting an Awesome God

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God." — Philippians 4:6

In a world that constantly shifts and surprises us, it's easy to become overwhelmed by the uncertainty of the future. We often face decisions, challenges, and situations that seem impossible to navigate on our own. The future can seem foggy, and at times, the weight of the unknown can leave us feeling anxious or discouraged. Yet, as believers, we are invited to approach the future with something far greater than worry: prayer.

When we are fervent in prayer, we are leaning into the power of God, recognizing that while we do not know what the future holds, we serve a God who is both sovereign and good. He knows the end from the beginning, and His plans for us are filled with hope. The apostle Paul encourages us in Philippians to cast our anxieties on God through prayer—nothing is too small or too great for His attention. What an amazing God we serve!

In Christ, Mrs. Greener, Principal
