

Sts. Peter and Paul Summer Reading Challenge

Maintaining a habit of reading during summer vacation is an excellent way to grow in your love for reading, increase your reading fluency, and keep your mind active over the summer.

Sts. Peter and Paul will be hosting a reading incentive program to encourage summer reading in all grades.

On Friday, August 31st we will host an all-school ice cream social!
In order to participate, you will need to complete summer reading.
The more you read, the more ice cream you can enjoy!

	K- 2 nd grades	3 rd -4 th grades	5 th -8 th grades
Bowl, spoon, napkin, and cone	1 hour of reading	50 pgs + book report	100 pgs + book report
One scoop	2 hours of reading	100 pgs + book report	200 pgs + book report
One topping	3 hours of reading	150 pgs + book report	300 pgs + book report
Second scoop	4 hours of reading	200 pgs + book report	400 pgs + book report
Second topping	5 hours of reading	250 pgs + book report	500 pgs + book report
Additional Reading will earn extra scoops/ toppings according to the pattern above.

Teachers will be sending home a calendar or book report specifications. Students must turn these in on August 27-28 in order to participate in the ice cream social.

Let's get reading!!!
